INTRO

As artists and visually driven people, our design team is constantly drawing inspiration from the world around us. We curate elements and ideas that are trending and use those as inspiration for a monthly collection of custom patterns.

BRUSHED

Curated by JULIA BURGESS

We go back to basics this month as we explore the creative building block of mark making. Brushstrokes are the result of a single application of paint to a surface, but as many they create a masterpiece. Brushstrokes vary depending on medium from heavy and textured to light and watery. We found it intriguing as the art was converted to flooring designs how utilizing different carpet constructions had the same effect.
