Express Yourself

Across our culture, conventional notions of masculine and feminine aesthetics have evolved. The way we dress and the way we style our spaces has become highly individualistic, eclectic, and multi-layered. The focus on unique personal style allows for self-expression that rings true to our own fluid natures. We have seen this gender-neutral evolution occurring in high fashion—and now we see these aesthetics reaching mainstream fashion and décor. Traditional, narrow definitions of “male” and “female” styles have been blurred, turning them into elements to mix and play with, instead of rules to abide by.

Inspired by these trends in fashion and self-expression, our design team set out to explore their impact on hospitality environments. The Expression Collection provides a fresh, inclusive approach to flooring design, with a new way of looking at pattern and color in hospitality spaces. The styles offer multi-layered expressions that are open-ended and open to personal interpretation. No neatly “feminine” or neatly “masculine” indicators. The collection lets you play with geometrics, brushstrokes, lines, and color. These are patterns without patterns, designed for continual reinterpretation.

CUSTOMIZABLE

Designers can choose from Axminster woven, Digital Dye Injection (DDI), or tufted constructions, along with a variety of fiber types, textures, colors, and pile weights. The designs can also be made into custom rugs to enhance guest rooms, lobbies, and other open spaces.

The 12 patterns can be customized to fit specific budget and project requirements.
